SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of:

3 Years, which shall be subject to the standard conditions of supervision 1 through 12 and the mandatory conditions in addition to the following special conditions:

1) The defendant shall permit the U.S. Probation Office to install any application or software that allows it to survey and/or monitor all activity on any computers or related services or connected devices that you will use during the term of supervision and that can access the internet. Those computers, services and devices being referred to hereinafter as "the devices," and the U.S. Probation Office is authorized to install such applications or software. The defendant shall not tamper with or circumvent the U.S. Probation Office's monitoring and surveillance capabilities. To ensure your compliance with this condition, the defendant shall allow the probation officer to conduct initial and periodic unannounced examinations of any devices that are subject to monitoring. The defendant shall notify other people who use the devices that it is subject to examination pursuant to this condition. The defendant must provide the U.S. Probation Office advance notification of planned use of any devices and will not use any devices without approval until compatibility; that is, software, operating system, email and web browser compatibility is determined and installation is completed. Applications for your devices shall be approved by the U.S. Probation Office once it ensures compatibility with this condition. Websites, chat rooms, messaging and social networking sites shall be accessed via the devices, web browser or browsers unless otherwise authorized, and will not create or access any internet service provider, account or other online service using anyone else's account, name, designation, or alias. You will not utilize any peer-to-peer and/or file-sharing applications without the approval of the probation officer. The use of any devices in the course of employment will be subject to monitoring or restriction as permitted by the employer.

2) If the probation officer determines based on the defendant's criminal record, his personal history or characteristics that he poses a risk to another person or organization, the probation officer with the prior approval of the Court, may require the defendant to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person or organization that the defendant has notified the person or organization about the risk.

3) The defendant must provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information.

4) The defendant must not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer, unless he is in compliance with the installment payment schedule for restitution.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
  - ☒ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☐ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: Richard Liriano
CASE NUMBER: 1:19 CR 796-01 (LAK)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.
